

Digest

Digest means an item that has been through internal review of the Chancellor's Office and the review entities. The item now has form and substance, and is officially "entered into Consultation." The Council reviews the item and provides advice to the Chancellor.

CONSULTATION

Title: Leadership Development Task Force

Date: November 11, 2008

Contact: Mark Wade Lieu, Academic Senate for California Community Colleges
Mark Zacovic, Association of California Community College Administrators

Background

The Academic Senate and CIOCCC brought forward a digest about leadership development within the system. Consultation agreed to create a task force to look at the issue. The Academic Senate and ACCCA were assigned the task of developing a draft charge and membership for the group.

Proposal

Possible Task Force Names

Consultation Council Task Force on Administrative Leadership Development (CCTFALD)

or

Administrative Leadership Development Task Force (ALDTF)

or

Task Force on Administrative Leadership Development (TFALD)

Charge

The charge of the Task Force is to bring recognition of viable career paths available to faculty and others to move into community college administrative roles. As part of this process, the task force plans to do the following: conduct a survey of current college/district practices/activities related to this issue; compile the training/education opportunities that exist to facilitate and enhance the success of such movement; conduct a study of the perceived and actual impediments to the transition into administration; and make recommendations on actions to facilitate the transition into administration.
