COVID-19 Update

June 3, 2020 – COVID-19 Update No. 56

"Our country is suffering from two diseases. One that's novel, COVID-19, and one that is historical, the scourge of racism. And both need a cure." – Dr. Jennifer Taylor-Mendoza, Skyline Community College

We are again using this space to stand with our Black students, staff, faculty, stakeholders, partners and communities. Please watch this webinar to learn how the California Community Colleges is taking action to address structural racism and ensure our students have access to equal educational opportunity.

The COVID-19 Special Update now publishes on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

STATE AND NATIONAL GUIDANCE/EXECUTIVE ORDERS/NEWS

Gov. Gavin Newsom today signed an executive order declaring a statewide general election on Tuesday, November 3, 2020, and signed an executive order to ensure that Californians can exercise their right to vote in a safe, secure and accessible manner during the upcoming election. To curb the spread of COVID-19, today's order ensures in-person voting opportunities are available in sufficient numbers to maintain physical distancing.

You can find the latest information how the state is responding to the pandemic on California's COVID-19 website.

The damage to America's job market from the pandemic will come clearer on Friday with the release of the May jobs report. Economists estimate 8 million more jobs were lost last month, and believe the nation's unemployment rate is around 20%.

SYSTEM GUIDANCE/NEWS

The Board of Governors and the Chancellor's Office have an unwavering commitment to advance equitable and inclusive hiring practices across California's community colleges. As such, the Chancellor's Office is hosting a webinar, called Student Centered Institutions: Diverse Faculty Retention Strategies. This webinar will focus on the student voice and role in hiring practices, and showcase strategies and lessons learned from individuals leading cultural change at their college through diversity, equity and inclusion retention efforts. A panel of experts will share and discuss retention strategies aimed at retaining a diverse workforce and addressing cultural competency and unconscious bias, as well as a discussion on strategies for retention in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. The webinar is tomorrow, Thursday, June 4 from 3:00 – 4:30 p.m. Register at this link.

Chancellor Eloy Ortiz Oakley will participate in a webinar called The Future of Work: The Education-to-Employment Pipeline. CalMatters and the Milken Institute will host the virtual discussion about California's response, recovery in the wake of the pandemic and what the "Future of Work" means now to educators, employers, college students and cities across the state. The webinar is tomorrow, Thursday, June 4 at 10:00 a.m. Learn more and register at this link.

The Chancellor's Office is committed to keeping everyone informed during this uncertain time. We encourage administrators, faculty, staff and students to regularly check the Chancellor's Office COVID-19 resource page for ongoing executive orders, guidance memos and announcements. Current and prospective students can also get connected with their local college to find out specific resources and support services available as well as enroll in their local community college.

College practitioners can find past COVID-19 Weekly Webinar recordings and other COVID-19 information within the Vision Resource Center. Create an account or log in. Under the “Connect” menu, visit “All Communities” and look for the “CCC | COVID-19 Resources, Tools and Discussion” section. Click “Join Community” to access the content within.
