COVID-19 Update

May 8, 2020 – COVID-19 Update No. 40

Southwestern College English Professor Will Dalrymple and Project Specialist Raquel Funches assemble education packets for Donovan students.

OUR COMMUNITY IN ACTION

When Southwestern College Restorative Justice Program Director Patrice Milkovich popped the trunk of her Subaru in the parking lot of the Pilot Truck Stop near the Mexican border, the cargo inside was more precious than any illicit cargo that passes through.

Milkovich was there to hand over 414 individual student packets of printed materials for the college's students at the Richard J. Donovan Correctional Facility. For the 22 classes offered inside the prison, student packets contained up to 200 pieces of paper depending on the student's course schedule.

STATE AND NATIONAL GUIDANCE/EXECUTIVE ORDERS/NEWS

Gov. Gavin Newsom today gave an update on the state's response to the COVID-19 pandemic. (All daily news conferences are streamed live at noon on his Twitter page and the California Governor Facebook page.) You can find more information on California's COVID-19 website.

The governor today marked the beginning of "Phase 2," allowing lower-risk retailers across the state to reopen with modifications. Newsom also announced that in light of public health concerns surrounding COVID-19, he has signed an executive order to mail every registered voter a ballot ahead of the November general election. In-person voting opportunities will still be available to those who need them. The governor also signed an executive order that extends some critical deadlines that have been impacted by the pandemic.

You can watch the full update here. (Please note: the broadcast begins around the 10:15 mark.)

An analysis by the Los Angeles Times shows most big California counties are not close to meeting Gov. Newsom's guidelines that would lead to a wider reopening.

The Legislative Analyst's Office today provided an outlook on the state's 2020-21 budget. In short, the LAO says the COVID-19 pandemic has led to "sudden and severely negative economic consequences for California."

The unemployment rate jumped to 14.7% in April, the highest level since the Great Depression.

SYSTEM GUIDANCE/NEWS

To support your local CARES Act implementation efforts, the Chancellor's Office has created a page with resources specific to community colleges. This resource page includes FAQs, accounting guidance and links to information released by the U.S. Department of Education. For more specific local questions and scenarios, we encourage you to check with your local legal counsel. The page will be updated regularly as new information is made available or guidance is released by the U.S. Department of Education.

We encourage administrators, faculty and staff to regularly check the Chancellor's Office COVID-19 resource page for ongoing announcements.

RESOURCES

The California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office and the Center for Urban Education are offering a six-part webinar series to provide strategies for faculty and administrators to exercise agency on behalf of the most vulnerable students. Webinars will be recorded and posted on the Vision Resource Center. The fourth webinar is:

Online Support as an Anti-Racist Practice

Thursday, May 14, 2020 from 12:00 - 1:30 p.m.

The immediate and unforeseen transition to exclusively online courses and administrative services in the wake of COVID-19 can make it difficult for administrative and students. In this webinar, panelists will: 1) discuss how administrators can proactively engage students with the goal of building and sustaining authentic relationships with minoritized students and 2) share strategies for doing so in online teaching and virtual support. Register at this link.

Recordings and transcripts for previous webinars are available. The links for Webinar II - "Equity-Minded Online Teaching: Using Canvas as a Model" presented by Jennifer Ortiz and moderated by Dr. Marissiko M. Wheaton are below:
