

Are you an ally for inclusion?

Registration is now open for the Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Southern California Promising Practices Showcase

March 17, 2023 | 9 am–3pm | Anaheim, CA

On behalf of the California Community College Chancellor’s Office you are cordially invited to attend the EEO Promising Practices showcase for Southern California. This is a free event to listen and engage in community learning around statewide promising EEO practices.

The event is centered on spotlighting the institutions that are spearheading the system with innovative Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) strategies that can be systemically scaled. The poster exhibition of the showcase will demonstrate collaborative best practices pertaining to pre-hiring, hiring, and post-hiring initiatives. The objective is to actively listen, acquire knowledge, and elevate the proven practices at institutions to a statewide platform. Please note that seats are limited.

Calling all equity champions!

The Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Program of the California Community College Chancellor’s Office extends an invitation to Southern California participants to present their exemplary practices at the Equal Employment Opportunity Southern California Promising Practices Showcase on March 17th. We’re especially looking for campuses that have been identified as steadfast champions of diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility (DEIA) initiatives and have been prominently featured in the 2022 Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO)/Diversity Best Practices Handbook. Showcase your outstanding DEIA initiatives as a Southern California presenter and make a positive impact on inclusion and equity. Be a part of this exciting event and contribute to creating a more inclusive future by expressing your interest by February 24th.

Submit Your Proposal

