Victoria Bautista	I love Buena Vista Social club! Great choice! Happy to be here!	Thank you for being here!
Sonya Carten	Me too!!!!	Welcome! A great way to start the day and week
Gabrielle Le	Good morning from Alpha Public Schools! We are ensuring our students know how to apply to CA Dream Act and understand where other scholarships are available on Immigrants Rising.	Important work! Thank you Gabrielle.
Teresa Lopez	Good morning from CRC! We have a very supportive presence on our college campus. :)	That's amazing, Teresa. We love learning about the work that CRC is doing. Thanks for being here!
Diana Askew	Good morning from Santa Monica College; We have several events and opportunities for students who need to complete their applications planned throughout the week.	Wonderful! Thanks for everything you are doing at SMC. Thanks for being here.
Jason M. Maxwell	Greetings from Las Positas College in Livermore. We support our undocumented students with an UndocuAlly Taskforce, a group of faculty, classified, and students that provide support for our undocumented students.	Welcome and good morning Jason. Thanks for sharing your campus efforts.
Zee Cline	Zee Cline from the CSU Chancellor's Office at Long Beach...excited to be here, I am part of a Community college/high school partnership in the Central Valley	So thrilled to have someone from CSU here! So many of our students transfer to CSU and it's important we have seamless pathways for them to be successful.
Gabriela Grishashvili	Good morning from Foothill college. We'll have a opening ceremony today with music, refreshments, and community building.	Congratulations on your opening, Gabriela!! Please post on social media and tag the CCCs

Brayan Astorga	Good morning from MiraCosta College! We are supporting our students through more than 10 events this week plus speaker events throughout the next couple of weeks! Plus yards signs all over our campus celebrating this week and our undocumented students! We are happy to be here!	Welcome Mira Costa!! More than 10 events touching on so many aspects. Thank you for all you do.
Margarita Ruiz-Lara	Good morning, I am Margarita Ruiz from Cabrillo College in the Financial Aid Department. We are supporting our undocumented students by providing them with the information around financial aid in higher ed through workshops. Making higher education a possibility for each one of them.	Welcome Margarita! Providing financial resources to students, regardless of their status, is so important. Thank you for your leadership.
Isabel Capuz	Good mornig from New Jersey	Good morning and thank you for being here!
Gabrielle Le	Will these sessions be sent out to us after?	Good morning Gabrielle. The session is being recorded and uploaded to the Vision Resource Center.
Rowena M Tomaneng	Good Morning Everyone from San Jose City College! In collaboration w/our ALMASS student leaders, we have lots going on this week including legal services and ways to engage in advocacy!	So exciting! Maria hernandez	Buenos Dias! Goodmorning everyone Maria Hernandez from Sierra College Rocklin CA. Muchas gracias! Diego Sanchez Thank you very much for all your support :) Aqui para servir!	Welcome Maria! Thank you for joining our webinar. We are grateful to have you as a partner in this work.
Gabrielle Le	Thank you Linda!
Teresa Lopez	Please forgive me if I misunderstood what you said...If this administration is supportive... why have DACA applications not been accepted for over 2 1/2 years?	Unfortunately, new DACA applications have been blocked by multiple federal court decisions. The Biden Administration did issue a new regulation intended to protect DACA last month, and a federal district court has been directed to review that to determine if it is lawful. We are hopeful!
Kyle Stroud	Good morning from Fullerton College! Our college is hosting an UndocuAlly Training this week among other workshops. Glad to be here!	Good morning. Thank you for joining us today and for your activities this week!
Anonymous Attendee	Good morning, Miriam mentioned apprenticeship and I missed the context - what is apprenticeship an example of? Thank you.	Great question. We are exploring the extent to which apprenticeships and other work-based learning opportunities can be configured as non-employment based opportunities for students - and make recommendations to the administration. For our general resources on non-employment based opportunities, see here: https://www.higheredimmigrationportal.org/effective_practice/fellowships-and-other-non-employment-based-opportunities-for-undocumented-students/ If you would like to connect on this, please email me at miriam@presidentsalliance.org

Lauryn Cortez	I am curious how financial support is managed for undocumented students that are not dreamers? How do they get tuition assistance?	Thank you for your question. While most financial aid is for students that meet the AB540 eligibility requirements, students should speak with the financial aid office on their campus or the Dream Resource Center to explore any available options.

Sonya Carten	Good morning Everyone!! Sonya Carten from Foothill College. This week is Undocumented Student Action Week on campus and I'll be attending a lot of the activities this week. Excited to be here!!	Thank you for being here and for all you are doing to support and elevate your student voices!
Mayra Macias	Dulce, thank you for invaluable feedback. I'm reflecting on ways I can help students I work with feel more safe in my presence. Does anyone have a pro-undocumented student zoom background they could share in the chat?	Hi Mayra. Great suggestion! The USAW Zoom background that Assistant Vice Chancellor Linda Vazquez is currently using is available on our website. We also have a FindYourAlly Zoom background, which encourages students to get connected to legal services available on their campus https://www.cccco.edu/Students/Support-Services/Special-population/Undocumented-Students/Undocumented-Student-Action-Week
Vanessa Morales	Thank you Dulce!!
Carolina Martinez	Berkeley City College Undocumented Community Resource Center!	Thank you for being here today!
Maria Hernandez	Thank you Imran :)
Gabrielle Le	Thank you @Dulce for your knowledge! I'm so happy you are doing so much as a student leader too! I feel like I am still learning so much as well as an advisor! I'm curious how undocumented students find part time job opportunities, since that is something I am trying to help my students with. Also I listen to KARD too.	Many undocumented students I have spoken to fund jobs through non profit organizations. Some that have paid internships or fellowships in the Central Valley are E.L.F. and Immigrants Rising.

Anonymous Attendee	Thank you, Miriam.
HENRIETTA HURTADO	I am curious to know if Dr. Garcia was an EOPS student at Imperial Valley College? I was an EOPS counselor years ago and I think she was one of my students. Dr. Henrietta Hurtado, IVC alumni	Hi Henrietta, I was an EOPS student at IVC and I am so grateful for the support I received. Thank you so much for joining us.
Harriet Aira Viaña	As a student, I think DREAMer is an appropriate term for undocumented students.
Luis De luna	hello everyone very informative, i just have one question is this meant for more for school leaders or students.	Hi Luis. Thank you for your question. Our Undocumented Student Action Week systemwide webinars are primarily intended for practitioners, faculty, administrators, staff, and policymakers. However, students are also welcome to join.
Anonymous Attendee	Terminology is difficult for me even as undocumented and non daca. Dreamers is an iconic name yet a lot of students dont identify but it has become synonymous with all undocumented
Maricela Sandoval	'@ Orange Coast College we use UndocuScholars and UndocuScholars Center
"Tijerina, Delia "	'- we use undocu or undocumented - Love you Linda

Attendee Name	Question	Answer(s)
Veronica Corral	We use specific language in our website regarding AB540 due to immigration status, mixed status families, Dream Act Application Filers, DACAmended and Undocumented Students
Anonymous Attendee	At CSUS we include in our Dreamer Ally Training that not everyone identifies as dreamers. Therefore, students, staff, and faculty are aware of the terms.
Anonymous Attendee	I only know of the terms DACA, unDACAmented, and undocumented. Are other identifying words being used?? I want to make sure im being as inclusive as possible	Important question, and I think those are the campus terms. I would note that on the federal level, advocates do use the term, Dreamers, because of its resonance with policymakers.
Victoria Sandoval	Long Beach City College! Proud Dreamer!! - Victoria Sandoval Rios	Welcome Victoria! Thank you for joining our webinar.
Jaquelyn Caro-Sena	Are there any research studies or reports with datapoints that focuses on California students?	You can review state data points and some research here: https://www.higheredimmigrationportal.org/ as well as this report here: https://ucpromise.uci.edu/findings/report-on-the-state-of-undocumented/
Veronica Corral	We lead a focus group that allow us to see that not all of the students felt comfortable being addressed as Dreamers. I agree 100% it is very important to reach out to the students and include them in this conversation
Anonymous Attendee	I'm curious to know if there are any programs to assist undocumented adult school students who want to continue their education at a Community College, but lack the funds to do so. I work closely with this population, but my answer is always an "I don't know" when it comes to financial assistance.	Hello. Your question is very timely. We will be hosting a webinar on Friday to cover financial assistance for undocumented students. Please join us!

Attendee Name	Question	Answer(s)
Julio Cabezas	How can we get colleges/universities to utilize more inclusive language such as "immigration impacted students" to include more members of the undocumented/immigrant communities (i.e., non-DACA students, TPS, Asylees, Refugees, students in mixed status families)?	Thank you for asking Julio. I think this is a good follow up effort to work with the President's Alliance. We will commit to working on this!
Anonymous Attendee	Thank you for raising this question, Linda!	you're welcome!
Claudia Llanos	I am an Immigrant but not DACA. Being an undocumented student here in CA with AB540, gave me a great opportunity to continue with my education. A lot of my community do not know that there is this option. how we can inform more efficiently that they can go to school without documents?	Hi Claudia - as Linda mentioned, we have a messaging campaign available for students on specific actions they can take to learn more about higher education opportunities. We agree there is a lot more work that needs to be done in this area - thank you for your leadership https://www.cccco.edu/Students/Support-Services/Special-population/Undocumented-Students/Undocumented-Student-Action-Week

Harriet Aira Viaña	Hello, my name is Harriet and I'm a student and Peer Mentor Fellow @ the DREAM Program(est 2015) at Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, CA. I'm a non-DACA recipient and was lucky enough to be selected to "work" at the DREAM program at my college through a Fellowship. I would like to connect with other DREAM programs/centers in different colleges to get ideas about helpful and intentional events to help our undocumented students on campus. I have already thought up of some events such as: DREAM Transfer series: where the intention is to link our undocumented students to the different DREAM programs in different colleges and have these centers be their first point of contact so when they transfer, those DREAM centers would be their first resource and community. Undocuprofessional panel: Invite guest speakers to Mt. SAC from different professions to have a talk about their journey in their profession as an undocumented individual.
HENRIETTA HURTADO	Por nada :)
Dalia Zetina	Going back to the term we use for out students, here at Coastline College we use "undocumented/ mixed status students"
Ruby Valdovinos	contact info from presenters please	Hi Ruby - if you have any questions regarding this webinar, please email govrelations@cccco.edu . We will get you connected to the right person.
Miriam Mendez	How can I get help with my status for Daca. I did not graduate HS but will be graduating from community college, will I qualify for daca after giving that i have a diploma from college?	Miriam, unfortunately, the government is not accpeting any new DACA applications. Please make an appointment at FindYourAlly.com for free legal help

Luis Chavez	Great Job Linda! Wonderful to have these webinars! Adelante! Luis
Joanna Miller	Dr. Vasquez, I know we want students not to be afraid to ask for help on campus and to not have fear to say they are undocumented, but if they do that off campus, don't they endanger themselves and make themselves vulnerable to actions under a different administration?	Great and valid question! We encourage students to seek support at FindYourAlly.com for legal services. On campus though, they should feel safe and able to share their status in order to access support. I hope this helps. LVazquez@ccco.edu
