Marlene Rivera	Jair, if you havent already, I definitely recommend you read Illegaly Yours a memoir by Rafael Agustin. An undocumented student that became a famous writer for shows like Jane the Virgin and CEO of the Latino Film Institute and a UCLA alumni just like you! Such a great inspiration!	Great recommendation!

The Transfer Center at your current college will have resources available for you. Additionally, the Financial Aid Offices at both your current college and CSUF will be able to assist you with applying for financial aid.
Itzalen Lopez	Thanks
Isela Estefany Coyotecatl	Will this Presentation will be share?	Hello Isela. A recording of this webinar will be made available on the Vision Resource Center one week after USAW.
Gabrielle Le	I love this idea! Many of our community college students and high schoolers are really unsure of what they qualify for and sometimes advisors are unsure too unless we look into it	Yes, this is exactly why it is so important to overcome silos and transition the culture into one that recognizes our students are interacting with different programs and services on a daily basis. Ensuring they are responsive to the needs of our students is critical.
Carlos Facio	Great information!	Glad it was helpful!

Anonymous Attendee	I have noticed that when it comes to undocumented students registering for community college at some colleges they are being asked to show Photo ID which many undocumented students do not have. Some colleges will allow them to show their yearbook photos and or Their transcripts with their picture it is the same with getting a student ID card which is valuable for undocumented students as it is the only form of ID they can get
Sharet Garcia	The work everyone is doing is amazing! Everything mentioned is highly important and needed. Thank you for all the work you are doing	Thank you, Sharet for your kind words. Glad to hear these webinars are helpful.

Attendee Name	Question	Answer(s)
Jackie Garibaldi	Thank you Gina for letting me know that Fullerton College I attend have all the resources I can get help for financial aid and EOPS Office
Anonymous Attendee	Emphasizing two years to graduation is at odds with students who have to attend college part time due to family and/or work obligations. How do you demonstrate a path to success for students who don't fit into the 15 unit/semester model?	Thank you for your question. Yes, many students do not attend college full-time because of family and or work obligations. The path to success is for all students regardless of how many units you enroll in each term. Financial aid, counseling and all the other student support services are available for part-time students. If you need support, please visit student support offices on your campus for resources.
Anonymous Attendee	again lots of undocumented students have difficulty just trying to register for classes when they don't have any kind of Photo ID to show if they are being asked by the college they want to attend in their area	Hello. Undocumented immigrants are eligible to apply for a California ID under a law signed by Governor Newsom earlier this year. Please see AB 1766 (Stone).
Gabrielle Le	Sorry I was booted out the Zoom due to my internet and missed a whole chunk, but thankfully it's recorded!
