BACKGROUND

The Community Colleges Pathway to Law School (Cal LAW) initiative launched in 2014 with a goal of enhancing opportunities and advancement in the legal profession for diverse populations, particularly those who have traditionally been underrepresented. More than 700 community college students are currently enrolled in the program statewide, with more than 250 graduated Cal LAW Scholars already.

The initiative seeks to invest in the State’s economic growth and global competitiveness through career education for the legal profession. At the core of the initiative is expanding diversity, equity, and inclusion by ensuring all students, regardless of race, age, economic status, or geography, gain exposure and confidence to pursue a Law career pathway. This initiative is intended to provide community college students, particularly women and people of color, with a direct path to law school, and to give those schools a pipeline of diverse students from across the state. Training students with 21st century skills is how the California Community Colleges will contribute to breaking the cycle of poverty and give community college students, their families, and their communities the opportunity for true economic mobility.

The intent is to expand the Cal LAW pathways program at community colleges. This funding will provide colleges the opportunity to work together with Cal Law program partners to:

- Support opportunities for dual enrollment partnerships between community colleges and local high school law academies.
- Implement partnerships with California State Universities that incorporate associate degree for transfer pathways in preparing students for a career in the legal profession.
- Expand existing transfer agreements with the University of California that will prepare students for a career in the legal profession.
- Provide student advising and guidance to help participants in the Community College Pathway to Law School initiative successfully transfer into the California State University (CSU) or the University of California (UC).

The Cal LAW initiative requires students to complete courses that develop effective lawyers. Students in the program receive early exposure to the law school experience, individual advisement and mentoring from law school advisors, financial aid counseling, LSAT preparation, and waived application fees for admission to the participating law schools.

Letter of Intent Overview

The purpose of the Letter of Intent is to solicit and identify additional community college districts wishing to participate in the Cal LAW Program. Based on the Letters of Intent submitted to the Chancellor's Office, grant funding will be issued to colleges not awarded in the first release of the Cal LAW LOI, for up to a maximum of $99,000 per college.

The grant funds are for selected districts to support costs associated with the Cal LAW Program, including:

- Faculty time to engage in:
 - Providing student support in pathway advising;
 - Collaborating with K-12 and UC/CSU colleagues to create seamless pathways for students;
 - Attend meetings for planning and design of an initial or expanded offering to be delivered, as well as office hours with experts in the pathway planning and design process.
- Offset the cost of partners engaged in this work, including K-12 partners focused on designing dual enrollment opportunities, faculty time, costs of textbooks, and meeting time.

Eligibility

- Eligibility for this funding opportunity is limited to California Community College districts that did not receive funding in the first Cal LAW LOI.
- Districts must have an active State approved Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) in Law, Public Policy and Society.
- Districts should have willingness to become part of the California Law Pathways Program administered by the Foundation for California Community Colleges.
- Districts should offer dual enrollment courses in at least two (2) of the seven (7) ADT in Law, Public Policy and Society pattern.
- Districts should have the operational capacity to implement, manage and achieve the performance objectives of the grant.

Grant Duration

The grant duration is for 18 months, and is expected to begin July 1, 2023 through December 31, 2024.

It is recommended that the faculty team consists of faculty representing each of the following areas: Counseling, Articulation Officer, and discipline faculty (Lead faculty in the Law pathway) or faculty division chair where the pathway is housed, as well as the dual enrollment coordinator and the outreach team representative. These roles are identified in the Letter of Intent application.
- Inform and confirm additional relevant parties at the college referred to as “supporting cast” to maximize success and further enrich the pathway (i.e., Communications or Public Relations, Counselors, Guided Pathways coordinator, Associated Student President, K-12 pathway coordinator, K-12 advisors, etc.).

2. Attend and participate in project meetings and convenings (estimated to be up to 3 hours per week for faculty over the grant period) working with program partners, in designing program delivery and continuous improvement. Participate in meetings with high school partners to design AB 288 \(Chapter 618, Statutes of 2015\) agreements related to Cal LAW Pathway and the active college Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) in Law, Public Policy and Society. Participate in meeting with articulation officers and CSU/UC partners related to establishing and maintaining pathways for the ADT in Law, Public Policy and Society.

3. Plan, design, and deliver ADT courses related to the Law, Public Policy and Society ADT pathway to dual enrolled and community college students.

4. Provide evidence of similar degree pathways with Law, Public Policy and Society ADT with CSU/ UC partners.
